

06 October,2023

Weekly Report

(9-10-2023 to 13-10-2023)

Calligraphy and Fine Arts Society
PERFORMING ART FESTIVAL 2023
(SKITS, TABLO, SINGING, COMEDY, ONE MAN SHOW)

A grand event titled "Performing Art Festival 2023" was organized by the Calligraphy and Fine Arts Society, under the convenorship of Dr. Amjad Farooq, on Wednesday, October 11, 2023, at the Auditorium, beginning at 11:30 AM. This event aimed to promote performing arts, confidence and creative skills among students and marked the first of its kind in the history of COMSATS University Islamabad-Vehari campus. Dr. Amjad Farooq, the convener, orchestrated the event exceptionally well. The Director of COMSATS University Islamabad-Vehari campus, Prof. Dr. Saleem Farooq Shaukat, graced the festival with his presence. The event was made possible through the generous support of Mr. Irfan Ibrahim, the Director of Sales and Marketing at GRAND CITY VEHARI, who made this event entertaining for all of us. Mr. Yasir Ikram (Assistant Registrar), Professor Dr. Khuda Bukhsh, Dr. Ghulam Mustafa Shah (In-charge OSA), Dr. Sajid Haider (HOD-Management Sciences) were also present along with other faculty members.

The festival featured three categories for competition: Singing, Skit, and special performances. In addition to our campus students, the teams from The City School, Superior College, Education University, and Govt. Girls College Vehari also participated and received various prizes.

Mrs. Sajida Parveen judged the singing competition, while Mrs. Nazia Suleman evaluated the acting skills of the students in the skits. Mr. Khalid Mahmood had the responsibility of judging the special performances.

In the Skit competition, students from the Humanities department secured the first position, followed by Miss Maham and Mahariba (CS girls) in second place, while Mr. Akif and Majid (ES department) coming in third. In the singing competition, Mr. Abdullag Baig got the first position with his flawless performance, captivating the audience. Mr. Azhar (CS) secured the second position, while Mrs. Daim from Education University took the third spot. For special performances, students from The City School Vehari displayed an excellent performance (KALI KALI ZULFON KE) and won the first position. Students from Superior College Vehari secured the second position, and the comedy news casters (Miss Fizza Areej and Misbah Kareem) got the third position in the special performance category.

Subsequently, shields of honor were presented to the convener, Dr. Amjad Farooq, and among all members of the Calligraphy and Fine Arts Society, namely Mr. Mujahid Abbas, Mrs. Rabia Luqman, and Mrs. Hina Naz, by our chief guest, Mr. Irfan Ibrahim of GRAND CITY Vehari. Dr. Muhammad Farhan Saeed, the event coordinator, who supported us from the very beginning of the event planning, was also recognized with a shield of honor. Miss Hina Abbas Khan, the coordinator of OSA, received a prize for her contributions. Dr. Zakir Ali and Dr. Iftikhar, who participated in the event for media management, were awarded with souvenirs. Mr. Irfan Ibrahim and Professor Dr. Saleem Farooq Shaukat praised the convener for his outstanding management and organization of the Performing Art Festival on short notice.

In the end, Dr. Amjad Farooq presented a shield to Mr. Irfan Ibrahim and the campus director to show appreciation for their support and gracious presence at the event. The convener extended his gratitude to his management team, including ushers and co-hosts.

The hall was filled to capacity, making it the most successful event in the history of COMSATS University Islamabad-Vehari campus.

Submitted by
HINA ABBAS KHAN
Coordination Officer(OSA)