

Office of Student Affairs
COMSATS University Islamabad
Vehari Campus

SEMESTER REPORT SPRING (SP-2023)

Skit Competition

On January 11, 2023, a skit competition organized by the "Calligraphy and Fine Arts Society" was held at COMSATS University Vehari. In which Mr. Tariq Mahmood, Assistant Commissioner Vehari, was the guest of honor. The skit competition included the following topics:

1. Corruption
2. Interfaith Harmony
3. Peace

Dr. Amjad Farooq" Convener, Fine Arts Society, took a favorable step to develop existing skills within students and students at the University. The vice-president of the society Noor Fatima (Department of Environmental Sciences) and general secretary Iqra (Department of mathematics) performed the comparing. The program was formally started with the recitation of the Quran, which was glorified by Sabiha Shahid ,and the Naat Sharif reading was achieved by Amina Manzoor . Talented students from various fields of the University participated in the program. Four departments of the university took part in the competition , including the Department of Mathematics, the Department of Environmental Sciences, the Department of Computer Sciences, the Department of Humanities . Compared to today, Mr. Khalid Mahmood assistant professor of Management Sciences, Mr. Farhad Mubashir Assistant Professor of Computer Sciences gracefully served the duty of judges. In this competition, the Department of Humanities took first place, the Department of Environmental Sciences took second while the Department of Mathematics took third place. A large number of students participated in the program and did Rich enjoyment. On this occasion, Assistant Commissioner Vehari Mr. Tariq Mahmood expressed his views, saying that "conducting such type of programs can be useful in highlighting hidden talents among students. And each student can achieve this position with hard work and dedication in his life, which he desires . On the same occasion, Professor Dr. Saleem Farooq Shaukat, Director of COMSATS University Islamabad, Vehari Campus, also expressed his thoughts, saying that we are all striving for the successful future of our children at all times. And Insha-Allah will provide even more opportunities in the future that will encourage our children .And they will be on the paths of success in the field of life. In COMSATS University Vehari history it was the first event that emerged as a special center of student attention and enjoyment minutes. Dr. Amjad Farooq, the convener of the society, said that we are trying to make our society grow twice as much as day and night in such a future, and help the institution in providing students with such opportunities.

Character Building Society

The character building society organized a seminar on 28 MARCH 2023 at CUI, Vehari Campus on the topic:

"Ramzan ul Mubarak: Spiritual Training and Social Reforms".

اصلاح معاشرتی اور تربیت روحانی: المبارک رمضان

Dr. Ch Rasheed Ahmad convey the special message Ramadan is not only a guide to individual life, it is a guide to community life. Fasting is the only form of worship that has no form, while every other form of worship has an outward form. Because it regulates us inwardly. We regard halal things as prejudicial even where they exist. There is a fixed time for fasting and Muslims around the world watch it at that fixed time. This leads us to a collective and social reform with spiritual formation.

READING CLUB

March is recognized as women history Month .To celebrate the international womens day an event was organized at comsats university islamabad vehari campus On 8TH March under the umbrella of Reading Club (OSA) convened by Dr.Nazia Suleman . A large number of students spoke about the important and dignified women of pakistan and supported the idea embrace equity

Tablo performance on Sinf E Ahan remained spectacular as it grasped the attention of audience.In the End,Dr.Nazia Sulemn appreciated and encouraged the studnts and wish them best of luck for future endeavours

Sports Committee

Students Week (Opening Ceremony)

Opening ceremony of the Sports Week Spring 2023 was held on Monday, March 13th, 2023. Opening ceremony was organized by Dr Ali Ahmad with the cooperation of Event Management Campus Sports Committee. Dr Saleem Farooq Shaukat, Director Vehari campus declared the student's week open in the presence of Chief Guest Mr Mahmood Javed Bhatti. Students from all departments participated in the march past.

Games and Teams

There were total 20 games in the student's week including Cricket, Football, Volleyball, Tug of war, Badminton, Table tennis, and all categories of Indoor games. Teams from all departments actively participated in all games and won the prizes in respective games. The following departments won the major events final.

Stalls and Fun Games

Students arranged the stalls of fast food, fresh juices, ice cream, literary books and fun games. A great number of students and teachers visited stalls, played the games and enjoyed the festivity.

Literary Competitions

Campus Literary Society organized literary competitions of Naat, Qirat, Poetry, Urdu and English speeches among the students of different departments. Students won prizes in different categories from all the departments.

Participation of Faculty

Faculty members performed their duties with great sincerity and enthusiasm in Student's week as umpires, referees, games coordinators and games conveners. Teachers supported their departmental teams as well in the and out of the field. Teachers were very helpful in maintaining discipline during the games.

READING CLUB

Telefilm

Reading Club always bring exciting events to engage students in meaningful activities

This time "Reading Club" brought a "Movie Day" in which they played movie for the students in Sports Week 2023 at 11:30 am on Thursday 17th-March-2023✦✦

The theme of movie was based on "How immigrants survive in other countries and what are the crisis they faced in search of work"

Language of Movie was Punjabi Venue was Room 14. There was too much audience that room has no space

Students enjoyed alot, they laughed, make streaks and learnt a lesson that How to handle difficult situations of life being a student.

Health Awareness and Blood Donor Society

Hanging Apple eating Competition

Hanging Apple eating Competition was organized by Health Awareness and Blood Donor Society under the convenorship of Dr. Muhammad Farhan Saeed during student week SP-2023. The competition was held on March 15, 2023, around 11 am and ended up around 12:30 pm. It was an outdoor activity within the stall reserved for Office of Student Affairs (OSA) Societies. Hafiz Sajjad Hussain (Secretary) arranged the whole event.

There were male and female students who participated in the competition separately. A good number of students gathered and enjoyed the competition.

The winners of competitions were Fakhar Jahan (Humanities) from male category and Minahil Fatima (Humanities) was from female category. Later, the prizes were distributed among winners on prize distribution ceremony held on Tuesday, March 22, 2023.

Calligraphy and Fine Arts Society
LIVE SINGING COMEPETITION

Live singing competition was organized by Calligraphy and Fine Arts Society under the convenorship of Dr. Amjad Farooq during student week SP-2023. The event was titled as “KARAOKE Competition” for the first time in history of COMSATS University Islamabad-Vehari campus. The competition was held on March 16, 2023 around 11 am and ended up around 12:30 pm. It was an outdoor activity within the stall reserved for Office of Student Affairs (OSA) Societies. Dr. Amjad Farooq (Convener) arranged the event very nicely.

The Director COMSATS University Islamabad-Vehari campus, Prof. Dr. Saleem Farooq Shaukat inaugurated the singing competition with his golden words for the encouragement of the students. Dr. Ghulam Mustafa Shah (Incharge-OSA) also present along with other faculty members. Mr. Mujahid Abbas and Dr. Zakir Ali participated in the event as signing judges for this competition.

There were thirteen students who participated in the live singing competition. A good number of students gathered and enjoyed the live music performances by different students. Miss Hina Abbas enjoyed the event and expressed her views for such a wonderful event. Miss Noor Fatima (Vice president of the Calligraphy and Fine Arts Society), also participated in the competition. Mr. Bilal Mirza (Math), Mr. Ramzan (CS) and Mr. Awais (CS) got first, second and third position respectively. Later, the prizes were distributed among winners and runner ups on prize distribution ceremony held on Tuesday March 22, 2023.

PAINING COMEPETITION

Painting competition was organized by Calligraphy and Fine Arts Society under the convenorship of Dr. Amjad Farooq during student week SP-2023. The event is a regular activity for students' creativity in COMSATS University Islamabad-Vehari campus. This time the theme for this painting competition was "Hope". The competition was held on March 17, 2023 around 10 am and ended up around 12:30 pm. It was an indoor activity held in Room #14 for the peaceful environment for the participants. Dr. Amjad Farooq (Convener) arranged the event very nicely. The Director COMSATS University Islamabad-Vehari campus, Prof. Dr. Saleem Farooq Shaukat appreciated the painting competition with his golden words for the encouragement of the students. Dr. Amjad Farooq (convener) and Dr. Farhan saeed performed their duties as judges for the competition.

The campus students participated in competition with their novel ideas and made beautiful paintings. Miss Noor Fatima (Vice president of the Calligraphy and Fine Arts Society), also participated in the painting competition and her painting was nominated for first position. Miss Saira Aslam (Math) and Miss Shabana Naz (CS) got second and third position respectively. Later, the prizes were distributed among winners and runner ups on prize distribution ceremony held on Tuesday, March 22, 2023.

Literary Society

English and Urdu Speech Competition

On the 16th of March COMSATS Literary Society organized English and Urdu speech competition. The topics for speech were

English: "Love is more powerful than hate".

Urdu : "گیا لے سیلاب کو شہر کھول تو آنکھیں"

The event went very well. Students from every department actively took part in this competition. All the participants performed very well.

Doctor Ali Ahmad head of Humanities department and convener of COMSATS Literary Society and Dr. Asma Kashif Shehzad accompanied us as judges.

Our worthy and honourable director Dr. Saleem Farooq Shoukat also attended the event and inspired the participants and appreciated the efforts of members of Literary Society.

The results for English speech are as below:

1st position : Noor Fatima(Humanities)

2nd position :Hina Azhar

For Urdu

1st position :Minahil Fatima

2nd position :Ali Raza

In the end a group photo was taken along with participants members of CLS worthy judges and honourable Director.

Pet show (Sp-2023)

Pets are the only ones who loves us uncondiattionally .pets also –plays a significant role in reducing disquiet and stress in childern and adults as they feel good and happy around the animals.the first petshow organized at COMSATS University Islamabad Vehari Campus by the sponsorship of pet and vet(clinic).The Worthy Director, Dr.Hassant,and Dr.Asaim Naeem visited the pet show activity.The Organizer of pet show was Dr.Ghulam Mustafa Shah.The pet show was organized by Anti drugs and tobacco Committee & Kabber Qamar played a important role for the smooth arrangments in pet show. Madam Hina Abbas Khan lookover the overall arrangments, Lined up the participants (students) during the pet show and appreciated all the participants .there were ten types of Cats in the show .Total Participants are 15 .five participants rae outsiders;six to seven people came with their birds.

In this show mehak fatima got 1st prize.

Mahnoor 2nd prize

Gohar got 3rd prize

The specialty of pet show was that vaccination was 50 percent off on that day and the free treatment was given by pet and vet clinic.

Students week (Closing ceremony Sp- 2023)

Closing ceremony of students week organized by office of student affairs .Dr.Khuda Bakash was the Chief Guest ;in his address he admire and appreciated all the students who contributed on the games and won positions. He wish them best of luck for future endeavors.

Incharge Student Affairs Dr.Ghulam Mustafa Shah acknowledged all the efforts of Conveners ,staff ,organizers ,students, camera man .Conveners are awarded shield of appreciation towards their dynamic events. Mr.Arif Mehmood played an important key role in all games conducted in students week specially sports games while his contributions in closing ceremony is wonderful. Madam hina abbas khan prepared the Students club of sports for comparing and other miscall onus arrangements to make this event successful. All the students of sports committee are awarded with shield for their marvelous efforts during the students week .In the end ,Incharge Student Affairs Dr.Ghulam Mustafa Shah present Guest of Honour Souvenir to Director shb along with Deputy registrar and Assistant treasurer .Director Saleem Farooq Shaukat encouraged OSA for their valuable efforts during whole student week and the post Convener's meeting is decided in Ramadan .

To celebrate world no tobacco day on 31st May, an awareness seminar on “Health effects and prevention from drugs and smoking” was organized at COMSATS University Islamabad (CUI) by Anti-drugs and Tobacco Committee. Director CUI Vehari, Prof. Dr. Saleem Farooq Shaukat welcomed the students, faculty, staff and guests and emphasized the role of institution in creating awareness about these pressing issues and foster a sense of responsibility towards a healthier and drug-free society

The Chief Guest Mr. Essa Khan, DPO Vehari, delivered an enlightening speech on the detrimental effects of drug abuse on individuals and society as a whole. He also shed light on the prevalence of drug addiction and the rise in illicit drug trafficking. Thereafter, the Guest of Honor Dr. M. Aslam, Head Pulmonology DHQ Vehari, shared his expert knowledge on the health consequences of smoking highlighting various diseases and conditions linked to tobacco use, including lung cancer, heart diseases, and respiratory disorders and also encouraged individuals to make informed choices for their well-being.

As a part of awareness campaign, students from all the departments prepared thematic posters and placed at various promising places of CUI, Vehari Campus. At the end, worthy Director Prof. Dr. Saleem Farooq Shaukat presented the shields to the Guests and presented certificates of appreciation to the team of organizers lead by Dr. Ghulam Mustafa Shah, In-charge Anti-drugs and Tobacco Committee CUI Vehari.

In the end, organizing team and committee members presented with Certificate of Appreciation .

Hbl (financial awareness and banking of accounting session)

On 1st june 2023 office of student affairs organized an informative session about women account launched by state bank of pakistan to facilitate women with basic banking needs.Madam Gul Rukh women facilitator described the important characteristic of alhabib women account that is specially designed to empower women with financial independence and facilitate then with simplyfying banking.

One women one account goal

In Pakistan research shows 80percent account of men on the aotherside 20 percent accounts of women Last year.Madam gul rukh stated that the basic purpose of this session /policy issued by SBP is to provide business opportunities ;bring females in financial sectors by opening their account without any deductions .They can pay their bills /budgeting /financing /saving online through their accounts easily.

Alhabib banking offers :

1. Free check book
2. Free cheques(3 months)
3. Free debit card
4. 24/7 alhabib mobile and net banking facilitation
5. Sms alerts
6. Free life insurancediscount on 50 lakhs
7. On initials non need of balance free intrustee online transaction
8. Gender gap

The basic goal is to eliminate gender gap by providing facilites to females by opening their account ,issuing ATM Cards and Chque book without any charges and Increase in number of female accounts in Pakistan .

The session is all about Women empowermwnt and banking solutions

Almost 50 plus studtns opened their accounts after quality session and in the end event was ended with a group photo.

READING CLUB (THE LITERARY COVEN)

The event comprised of three segments: Word Search, Spell Bee, and Mushaira.

The aim of the event was to promote literacy, enhance vocabulary skills, and provide a platform for creative expression among the participating students.

Convenor: Ma'am Nazia Suleman

Spell bee Judges: Ma'am Hina Abbas

Mushaira Judges: Dr. Mubeen, Dr. Ghulam Mustafa Shah

Event lead by: President Ezza Shahzad and shoaib

Segment 1: Word Search

The event kicked off with a thrilling Word Search competition. Participants were presented with challenging grids filled with hidden words related to various subjects

Segment 2: Spell Bee

Following the Word Search competition, the Spell Bee segment took place. Participants were given a series of words, ranging from easy to challenging, and were required to spell them correctly. The Spell Bee not only tested the participants spelling skills but also their composure under pressure.

Segment 3: Mushaira

The final segment of the event was the Mushaira, a poetic symposium where participants had the opportunity to showcase their poetic talents. The participants recited their original poems and paid homage to the rich traditions of Urdu poetry.

Certificate Distribution:

As the event drew to a close,

Sir GM Shah, expressed gratitude to all the participants, judges, and volunteers who made the event a success. Certificates of participation were distributed to all the participants. Additionally, shields were presented to the passing out members of the society in acknowledgment of their valuable contributions and commitment to the Students Reading Club

PREPARED BY

HINA ABBAS KHAN

OFFICE OF STUDENT AFFAIRS